The Boys II Men Program is a new program for young men looking to develop good-decision making and leadership skills. The program encourages young men to become positive, engaged citizens by introducing them to mentors, and using personal development, reflection and career awareness activities. The use of media critiques encourage analysis of popular culture

The Leaders in Action Program is designed to develop the leadership skill of teens. Participants work with their peers to take responsibility for making positive changes within their community. Youth choose a topic to explore and develop a programmatic response to it. This summer's project is focused on documenting the history of East Cambridge.

City Peace is a violence prevention and youth leadership program for Cambridge teens. Participants learn about conflict resolution, community issues, facilitation and mediation while working with their peers to develop and deliver a legacy project on violence prevention for the community.

My City, My voice teens explore their city and their personal voice through the development of art projects throughout the summer. Participants will create and deliver public art pieces to be performed throughout the city.

Girls Taking Action is for young women looking to play a leadership role in our community. The program encourages young women to become active citizens by introducing them to service learning, personal development and career awareness activities.

Who: 14- 18 year old Cambridge Residents
